Homecoming at O.R.

COVER – Homecoming Day as Old Rochester hosted Fairhaven. Three of the brightest moments in a traditional day full of color. At the top, Richard Mott, in a great individual effort, sets up the Bulldogs' only score as he is overtaken by the Fairhaven safety man after a 23-yard run in the fourth quarter. Moments later, in the photo below, Danny Sullivan broke through to score standing up. Bottom, the Sophomore class built this magnificent float with 2,000 paper napkin flowers to honor their new coach. The banner reads '72 Welcomes Coach Oliva. In the cupola, riding high on the giant Bulldog is a figure representing the coach. The floats were all so outstanding that the judges had a most difficult afternoon.

The football team also had a difficult afternoon as the Blue Devils overpowered them in the first half to score 34 points. Dick Martin put on a terrific show as he scored three touchdowns for Fairhaven. His 85-yard dash for one of the TDs was the spectacular of the game. Steve Cadieux, former O.R. quarterback, looked very sharp serves. Bucky Riley, O. R.'s freshman quarterback, performed very well. He completed 8 of 18 passes and was intercepted three times. Richard Sylvia made two circus receptions. Richard Mott and Danny Sullivan were outstanding in the running department and George Edwards was a defensive bulwark as he had a hand in nearly every tackle.

Richard Sylvia, end, makes a diving grab of a Riley pass for a spectacular completion.

This is the way it's going to be.

We take the fun of driving seriously.

The O. R. team lost DeCosta during the half. He was taken to Tobey Hospital after having difficulty breathing and was later released. He played well during the first half of the game.

Supper Starts Year

PTC MEETING

Principal John Moynihan introduced the teachers and personnel of both Center and Old Hammondtown Schools. He also discussed the program for our school region which involves twenty student teachers from the University of Massachusetts. This is unique in that the program is flexible and the students get thoroughly involved in all school matters and teacher duties in grades K through 6.

Mr. Moynihan also asked all parents interested to contact him and volunteer a few hours a week during school time to help in the library and cafeteria, and also to transport small groups of students on field trips.

The membership dues and other funds raised last year will be used to benefit the library in Center School with books, functional furniture and draperies to blacken the room for the use of movies and slides.

The Mattapoisett Parent-Teachers' Club began its season with a well-attended pot luck supper and membership drive. After partaking of all the delicious food, a business meeting followed. There was an election of officers, an exhibit of some of the audio-visual equipment purchased for the schools during the summer and a mention of future programs.

The officers for the year 1969-70 are as follows: Mr. M. Murdock MacDonald, president; Mr. Kjeld Jensen, first vice-

MATTAPOISETT GRANGE MEETING
SECOND ORDER OF CASSEROLE COOK BOOKS

Mattapoisett Grange held its bi-monthly meeting last Thursday night.

Robert Ouellette, master of Sippican Pomona, was the honored guest. He announced that Sippican Pomona will be guests of Mattapoisett Grange on Saturday, November 1st. The Rev. Edward White of the First Congregational Church in Rochester will entertain in the evening with his sketches and drawings.

Under new business, Mrs. Susan LaFleur was elected secretary and was installed by her husband, Herbert LaFleur, overseer of Sippican Pomona. He was assisted by Robert Ouellette as marshall, Manuel Roderick and Katherine Buckley as aides, and Mrs. Irene Tripp as pianist.

A donation was voted to the Police Department towards the Halloween party they are planning for the children in Mattapoisett.

A Halloween party was presented by the lecturer of a fortune game and grand march, conducted by Herbert LaFleur. Prizes were

Letter to the Editor

I feel a little silly defending my patriotism. However, in answer to Mr. Raphael's letter in last week's Presto, I'd like to ask why honoring, with our flag at half-mast, over 40,000 dead American boys in Vietnam is an unpatriotic act? I don't like the inference that in requesting this gesture of our Selectmen, makes me less of a patriot than he!

I would like to point out, too, that the person reporting my request to the Selectmen should have reported it the way it was. "To honor the 40,000 American boys who have died in Vietnam" was the way I put it. Also, October 15th was not a day of "Confrontation". It was a day of "Moratorium" and of mourning our dead boys; a vast difference from the term "confrontation". Perhaps Mr. Raphael realizes by now that the majority of the clergy in our country participated in the day of Moratorium. And that, according to a recent poll, 6 out of 10 Americans want us out of Vietnam. The big question now is, how long it will take to get us out properly.

Let us pray that Mr. Nixon will see that it is done wisely and with as little further blood shed as possible.

Since October 15th many local residents have told me they approved of my request. In fact I have been telephoned by legion members who said that Mr. Raphael did not speak for them in his letter. So thus we go - in a democracy - we do have differences of opinion. If our Selectmen, for their own reasons, preferred not to honor these young men on October 15th, when most of the rest of the Nation was doing so, then any other day will do as well!

My heart aches for every woman who has lost a husband or a son in this war or any war.

Altho', if I'd been a man, I'd certainly have fought against Hitler!

PILGRIM FELLOWSHIP NOTES

The Mattapoisett Congregational Youth Fellowship conducted its Annual Autumn Paper Drive this past weekend, and the project's success could not have been achieved without the help of many adult volunteers. All those residents who personally delivered their paper to the Center School "Collection Center," the Fellowship wishes to gratefully thank. Most especially, the Fellowship expresses gratitude to those adults who assisted club advisers, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Dunn throughout the day as drivers and chaperones. These people were Mr. Manuel Luiz, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hogan, Mr. William Betts, Mrs. J. Louis Roberts, Mrs. Raymond Covill, Mr.

LITTLE LEAGUERS TO HOLD FLASHLIGHT SALE

Mattapoisett Little League ball players will call on all the homes in town this coming Sunday for the purpose of selling flashlights.

The profits derived from this sale will be used to purchase jackets again next season for the boys who will be completing their Little League careers.

These flashlights are one of the top grade American made lights, complete with batteries. They are presently selling in stores for 1.39 to 1.59. The Little Leaguer's price is 1.00 each complete.

This would be the time to purchase those

YWCA NEWS

The World Fellowship Committee's plans are completed for the Harvest Supper on October 28th, but Mrs. Joseph Vinci, committee chairman, and Mrs. Clarence W. Whitaker, chairman of supper arrangements, are stressing the need of volunteers to help in the kitchen and in serving. Anyone willing to help in this way is requested to notify the main desk.

Tickets for this annual fund raising event are available at the main desk. The menu including cider as an appetizer, lists chicken pie, squash, green string beans, and jellied salad. Also, beverage, rolls and cranberry crunch for dessert.
